

Agent Conduct Agreement

I _____, as an agent and representative of Chamberlain Realty LLC, hereby agree to:

- Be kind and professional in every circumstance with the clients and agents I interact with. Even when things are difficult or frustrating, I will keep my cool and respond with grace and dignity. I recognize this applies to my actions in person, on the phone, via email, online, social media and in every other interaction. I understand that I reap what I sow and I will do my best to treat others like I want to be treated.
- Know and continually renew my understanding of the governing rules of real estate. Specifically the NAR Code of Ethics, the OREC Rules and Regulations, and the MLS Subscriber Agreement. I will seek out clarity from my broker if ever I do not understand what is allowed or not allowed. If I do something against those rules I will respond quickly and professionally to correct my actions once it's brought to my attention. If I become aware of something I have done not in accordance to the governing rules of real estate I will quickly bring it to the attention of my broker and seek to reconcile the error quickly and appropriately.
- I will seek to be “the Chamberlain” in every transaction. I understand that in order to be “the Chamberlain” I’m expected to run my business with excellence, to the best of my ability, with professionalism and the heart of a servant as if my clients were kings and queens and their property was a castle. And I will strive to continually grow in my skills and abilities in the years to come.
